Call for Editors

The Therapeutic Recreation Journal (TRJ), managed and published by Sagamore-Venture Publishing LLC is seeking editors to fill three-year rotational terms beginning in 2021. TRJ is a renowned, peer-reviewed, quarterly publication devoted to publishing scholarly and substantive manuscripts in the field of therapeutic recreation/recreation therapy (TR/RT). TRJ provides an international forum for research and discussion on the needs of persons with disabilities, best practices, and trends and issues in TR/RT. The journal seeks materials that are theoretically or empirically based with practical TR implications and substantive in the sense of proposing, discovering, or replicating knowledge in the field. The information provided below outlines qualifications and responsibilities. TRJ editors have a tremendous opportunity to significantly impact the profession while advancing their personal growth and expertise.

TRJ Editor Qualifications and Responsibilities

Qualifications

- Recognized, scholarly, and professional contributions to the field of therapeutic recreation/recreation therapy through publications, service, leadership, and/or exemplary programs. Practitioners are encouraged to apply.
- Awareness and understanding of the theory, multidisciplinary approaches, best practices, and evidence-based or practice-based study of therapeutic recreation/recreation therapy.
- Certified Therapeutic Recreation Specialist (CTRS) preferred.

Duties

- Editors assist the editor-in-chief in duties related to the editorial management of TRJ.
- Editors review manuscripts, select and monitor reviewers’ work, and recommend topics and material that will make up TRJ, using Sagamore-Venture’s journal management system.
Editors are responsible for maintaining records of reviewers and reviewed manuscripts and transmitting review information to the editor-in-chief and Sagamore-Venture's journal management system.

Editors are asked to respond to electronic communications and an annual report summarizing TRJ activities.

Editors are responsible for implementing editorial policies and procedures as determined by the editor-in-chief, Sagamore-Venture Publishing, and the editors.

Information to be Submitted with the Electronic Nomination

- A cover letter stating the candidate's desire to be an editor, including notation on expertise and interests relative to the journal's potential content.
- A brief and up-to-date personal resume or academic vitae to verify content expertise.

Submit nomination by August 1, 2020
