The Therapeutic Recreation Journal (TRJ) is a quarterly research journal devoted to publishing scholarly and substantive manuscripts in the field of therapeutic recreation.

The Journal provides a national forum for research and discussion on the needs of persons with disabilities, problems confronting the profession, new vistas of service, and receiving therapeutic recreation services.

The Therapeutic Recreation Journal is published by Sagamore Publishing LLC. Printed articles are the expressions of authors and are not statements of policy of the National Recreation and Park Association.

NATIONAL RECREATION AND PARK ASSOCIATION

The National Recreation and Park Association is a national, not-for-profit organization dedicated to advancing park, recreation, and conservation efforts that enhance the quality of life for all people. Through its network of more than 21,000 professionals and citizens, NRPA encourages the promotion of healthy lifestyles, recreation initiatives, and conservation of natural and cultural resources.

Headquartered in Ashburn, Virginia, NRPA works closely with local, state and national recreation and park agencies, citizen groups and corporations to carry out its objectives. Priorities include advocating favorable legislation and public policy; increasing public awareness of the importance of parks and recreation; providing continuing education, professional certification, and university accreditation; and conducting research and technical assistance.

For more information, visit www.NRPA.org or contact NRPA’s Membership Services Department at 800.626.NRPA (6772) or membership@nrpa.org.
